New Orleans, La. March 21—Cottom steady and unchanged: middling, 1.53; sales on the spot 750 bales and 100 to arrive. Futures opened steady at an advance of 2.95 points on good cables. The weather report indicated dry weather everywhere in the cottom belt, and this stimulated buying of the new crop months, for the general opinion is that enough rain has fallen to carry the belt over the planting season. At the end of the first half hour of trading prices were 5466 yet hoints over yesterday's close. Throughout the morning session ring scalpers continued to furnish the bulk of the business transacted. At the first the demand and supply were about evenly balanced, but later shorts also increased as the result of very favorable reports from Texas, where in counties not well covered in official weather reports the rainfull at the cud of last week appears to have been heavier than at first thought several important sections reporting from its the tacks. Our Great Business is that of acting as Executor, Guardian, Trustee and in any Trust Capacity, and we are gratified that the public generally is becoming acquainted with this branch of our business. Scarcely a day passes that we do not have practical evidences of it. Our advertisements have been chiefly directed to that department, but for the next five days we will talk about another important branch of our business that should equally interest the public.

Virginia Trust Co.,

We respectfully answer "YES" to the numerous inquiries sent us to know if we accept and file Wills, free of charge in which this Bank is named as Executor.

WE ALSO BEG TO SAY THAT

A Strong, Progressive Banking Institution makes the safest of all Executors. We especially desire the public to know this by reason of the fact that numbers of Richmond people and throughout Virginia are honoring us by selecting this institution as Executor, Trustee, etc.; but sometimes fail to file the papers with us for safe keeping, as evidenced by a WILL handed us a few days On Savings Accounts ago; found in an old trunk a week after the party died.

In all matters pertaining to the Banking or Trust business we shall be pleased to serve you, whether as Executor, Administrator, Guardian or Trustee. Bank of Commerce & Trusts
